

Re: NAB petition 04-160

I work as a long haul truck driver, I rely on the information that XM traffic and weather provides. I routinely arrive into cities very late at night or early morning when traffic and weather reports are not broadcast on local radio. I use the information that they provide to decide on the best route to my destination. therefore I respectfully urge that the FCC reject NAB 04-160.